

PUMP-IN FLANGED CROSS

The BDWS Pump-In Flanged Cross is designed to provide convenient access for pumping fluids into the well or bleeding off lubricator pressure. They are available with several variations of side outlet ports.

The Pump-In Tee Flanged Cross is manufactured with API flange connections, pressure rating up to 20,000 psi working pressure and for Standard and H2S services.

FEATURES

- Manufactured from Alloy Steel.
- Flange / Studded Flange connection available on request.
- 3,000 to 20,000 psi working pressure.
- H2S or Standard service.
- Pressure test to the required Test Pressure.
- Part Number available upon request.

